SEATING POLICY

For those who wish to join us for High Holy Days, we invite you to consider joining our congregation and supporting us throughout the year as we grow our community. We welcome non-members as our guests (and do not sell tickets), providing seating downstairs where services are broadcast through closed-circuit TV. We make seats available upstairs to our guests, but only once our members have had a chance to be seated.

To learn more about membership, please contact Membership Director, Soozy Miller.
